PRES. ROOSEVELT IN SECOND LETTER SCORES MR. BRYAN

Replies to Recent Speech When Democratic Candidate Asked For Square Deal.

Tells of Steel Trust Absorbing Competitor.

PUBLICATION OF CONTRIBUTIONS

Washington, Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt made a reply to William J. Bryan's recent speech in which he maintained that the Democratic party and platform were not getting a square deal in the campaign, and that the president's reply does not particularly with Bryan's assertion that the administration has been neither vigorous or effective in the prosecution of the trusts. Roosevelt combats this charge with characteristic emphasis, and sets forth in detail what has been done under his direction toward ending the tendency of capital to centralize with a view to destroying competition.

Roosevelt in his reply says in part: "I have seen your letter published today. As to the most of what you say about me personally I do not regard any answer as necessary. When you say that I am unfair to your platform you reiterate certain opinions as to which I had quoted, with my hearty approval. Governor Hughes, in my letter, and those therefore, it is unnecessary to answer. You have not answered Hughes' speech, and in no judgment you would do well not to make the attempt. You say that your platform declares in favor of a strict enforcement of the law against trust monopolies and officials and that the platform upon which Taft stands makes no such declaration. It was not necessary. That platform approved the policies of the administration and promised to continue them; and here as usual, I have only to compare your words with the deeds of the administration and of Taft. You merely profess in your platform that you intend to do just what this administration has actually done and is doing.

Difference in Deeds and Words.
To show the difference between deeds and words I will compare the record of this administration with the record of one of your most prominent supporters at this moment, Mr. Olney, attorney general under the last Democratic administration. While Olney was attorney general no cases whatever were brought under the anti-trust law, against combinations of capital, the only new cases which he brought being directed against combinations of workmen. During that entire administration the only cases brought against combinations of capital under the anti-trust act were four in number, two of which were unsuccessful; one of the other two being a case which was decided by Judge Taft in favor of the government.

"Under this administration a host of such cases have been brought including a case against the Northern Securities company; against the beef packers; against the Federal Salt company; against the General Paper company; against the Otis and other elevator companies; against the American Tobacco company; against the powder trust; against the Virginia-Carolina Chemical company; against the Standard Oil company, and others.

Government Not Defeated.
"In a number of these cases the government has already succeeded by injunctions and otherwise. Some of the cases are now pending, in hardly been convicted are some of the greatest corporations in the United States. "You state that the Steel company, with my express consent, purchased one of its largest rivals and thus obtained control of over fifty per cent of an important case against great law-breaking corporations has the government yet suffered final defeat.

"As regards the suits to suppress railway abuses under the last Democratic administration there were no indictments against shippers for receiving rebates or secret rates. Under Burglar at Osburn Home.

A burglar entered the home of A. E. Osburn, 318 Norton street, Saturday night and stole $5.00 from Mr. Osburn's trousers pocket. The thief entered the house by taking out a screen window.

Great Interest Manifested in the Movement to Select Non-Partisan Ticket For the School Board

Convention Meets Tonight at City Hall at 7:30, and Will Consider Placing Some Ladies on Ticket.

Paducah is at last to have what many of her best citizens have wished for for years, if present plans don't see away—a non-partisan school board. The Sun published a card Saturday signed by Earl Palmer and H. R. Lindsey, two of the most prominent men in the two parties, suggesting that such an action be taken, and it has met with a hearty response.

The meeting will be held at the city hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock, and every man and woman in the city is being urged to attend, to offer suggestions and assist in formulating a good ticket. In every section of the city there is a sentiment for just such a movement, and there is no doubt of its success at the polls.

To Nominate Some Ladies.
Some of the men behind the movement have been sounding public sentiment on the proposition to select two or three ladies as members of the board, and the idea has made a most favorable impression. This question, however, will be considered tonight.

The Republicans hold their convention tomorrow night to select their nominees for the different city offices, and the indications are that they will endorse the nominees made by the non-partisan meeting tonight.

"We have always been in favor of taking the schools out of politics," said Chairman E. E. Bell, today, "and I am, personally, heartily in favor of the idea, and don't see how any one can oppose it."

The Democrats look with favor upon the movement, too, and some of the nominees of the primary have indicated a willingness to stand aside in favor of the citizens' nominees.

Sherman Begins Tour.
Chicago, Sept. 28.—James S. Sherman began his speaking tour of Illinois today. He addressed the Hamilton City club at Macomb and will appear at a big rally tonight. Tomorrow he begins a tour to visit every part of the state.

NAMES OF 100 MEN IN BIRMINGHAM KNOWN TO SECRET SERVICE MEN

Seventy New Names Will be Added to List of Defendants
in Damage Suits.

Through the efforts of a secret service man it is rumored that additional suits will be filed against 70 more men charging them with making the aid on Birmingham. Already suits have been filed against Dr. E. Chapman and 70 other men for $50,000 damages. It is said that there were 150 men in the mob and

INCENDIARY FIRE AT CROSSLAND, CALLOWAY CO.

Crossland, Ky., Sept. 28.—Fire that started in the general store of W. L. Jackson at 9 o'clock Saturday night and believed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed four stores at the postoffice, leaving only one store house standing in the town. The stores burned besides Jackson's were O. H. Wilson's two stores, and J. D. McLeod's. The postoffice was in the McLeod store. None of the stocks of goods were insured except the Jackson store in which the fire originated.

Crossland is remote from the night fire section and the fire is not barged to them. Crossland is on the state line ten miles south of Murray. The big general store of J. T. Turnbow & Co. was not burned.

VOTING PLACES TOMORROW

The precinct conventions tomorrow afternoon will be held at 2 o'clock at the same voting places used at the election last fall. Republicans are urged to remember this.

EMMETT WOODS FATALLY SHOTS JOHN REED TODAY

This afternoon about 2 o'clock Emmett Woods, of Maxon Mills, probably fatally shot John Reed, who is a son of Tom Reed, of the Benton road. Three shots were fired in rapid succession and each shot struck Reed in the chest. The men were on North Fourth street in front of the station No. 1. Wood was drunk and it is alleged that Reed struck him and then jumped on him. Wood was placed under arrest by Patrolman Charles Whittemore and Captain John S. Hunter. Reed was picked up by Patrolmen Johnson and Carter and carried to the office of Dr. Bradley, but was unconscious. Emmett Wood is about 19 years old. Both are farmers. The shooting was sudden and the three shots attracted a large crowd.

New Second Assistant Postmaster.
Washington, Sept. 28.—Roosevelt today appointed J. P. Stewart, of Missouri, second assistant postmaster general, succeeding James T. McCreary.

that the remaining names have been discovered. Suits have been filed by Magistrate Rogers and L. A. Baker, negroes, who were forced to leave their homes and remove to Illinois. Some of the most prominent men, it is said, are included in the suit. Browning & Hays filed the suits, but they declined to affirm or deny the rumor.

Every man who will be made parties to the suit filed in federal court by Charles E. Smith, Fred Baker, J. J. Lilly, Joe Wallace, Lillie Seay, Alex. Proctor, Thos. Houston, R. A. Allen, Peter Hege, Geo. Smith and Wm. E. Smith. No more of the additional names were given out.

Alex. Serpents and L. A. Baker, the principals, were in Paducah today to make affidavits for the appointment of a guardian ad litem for the defendants in the suit already filed.

The following defendants are: George W. Alfred Chaudet, Louis Chaudet, Clarence Postaway, Claude W. John Prescott, John Whallon and Zeb Woodworth.

Judge O'Rear to Address W. C. T. U.'s

Judge Edward O'Rear, chief justice of the court of appeals of Kentucky, arrived in Paducah today from Frankfort and is at the Palmer hotel. Judge O'Rear was somewhat taken back by the chilly weather but braced up and felt fine.

This morning he was present at the opening of the September term of circuit court and at the court house was greeted by all the members of the local bar. Judge O'Rear this afternoon is addressing the women of the W. C. T. U. state convention at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church. His subject is "The Law and How to Enforce It." His address is the feature of today's program of the convention.

CHILLY WEATHER PAYS SUDDEN VISIT SUNDAY

The Weatherman, and Many Others Have a Chill and Seek Fires.

Gabmen Claim Some of the Beautiful Fell.

PALE WEATHER IS NOW HERE

The weather man suffered quite a severe chill last night. The mercury dropped several notches, and Paducah got one of the suddenest changes in the weather line on record.

The "chillies" that a light snow fell late last night and they ought to know. Anyway, Gabmen were created by rainy weather this morning when they rolled out of bed and fires felt comfortable.

The skies were clouded all day Sunday and "Old Sol" didn't even get an opportunity to show his face. Clouds grew heavier as the day passed and about 2:30 in the afternoon a drizzling rain began to fall. It started up late in the afternoon, but in again after night and poured down. The temperature got in the dumps, was down as the rain grew harder, and at midnight everybody was hoarse up.

Steam heat was given the right of way this morning and overcoats and old winter duds were snatched up. Saw hats were thrown to the winds and a strange in town couldn't have told that Sunday was a fairly warm day. The schools did not "get up steam" today, as the change came so suddenly, but they will be prepared for anything now.

A dispatch from Chicago says that a sudden cold wave came in the general west and the central states. The drop in temperature ranged forty degrees, and rain accompanied the change generally. The downpour in Wisconsin checked forest fires. The forecast from Montana says that the chilliness will prevail for several days, although a few more days of warmer weather are looked for. There was rain, snowing in some places people failed to prepare.

Towards noon today the steady chilly wind from the north decreased in velocity, but the winter weather is still with us. Everybody had the "moving" spirit all today and there was no time to stroll along the street, when you faced a cold wind from the opposite direction.

It is the general opinion that fall has finally set in, although there are chances of a few more summerish days.

THEODORE JR. GOES TO WORK IN CARPET HOUSE

Thompsonville, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is expected this afternoon to begin work with the Hartford Carpet company. President Hughes said he will give Teddy a chance to work in. He will begin at that station and receive the same treatment as other employees.

INFERNAL MACHINE ADDRESSED TO SANFORD HALL IS FOUND IN THE PADUCAH POSTOFFICE

Cleverly Arranged Box Would Have Brought Instant Death to the One Opening It.

An infernal machine addressed to Sanford Hall, the confessed night rider, was discovered in the Paducah postoffice late Saturday afternoon after it had been handled roughly by the clerks since July 9, when it was mailed. The infernal machine had a stick of dynamite and blasting powder in it, and had the lid been pulled there is no doubt but what an entire building would have been wrecked. The machine was wrapped in a newspaper and tied with a string. It was a box 1 1/2 inches square and 10 inches long. The lid was marked "mail," and several matches were arranged so that an old fire ran over the heads when pulled. Three dynamite caps were arranged so as to set off the dynamite and blasting powder, which was packed into one end of the machine.

For nearly three months the officials have had the package around the office, and it has been played from box to box in order to get it out of the way. Saturday afternoon, Frank Moore, clerk of the general delivery, was cleaning up the boxes and placed the package to James Paxton, chief clerk, with the remark that it was an infernal machine. Jokingly, Mr. Paxton carried it into his office, believing that it might be something unusual he mailed the string and unwrapped the box from the paper. Examining it he saw the ends of two matches protruding from a crack. Then it was that the box was handled as gently as a child. After closely examining it the bottom was found screwed in. With a screwdriver the bottom was removed and the entire workings were revealed.

Just upon a block the matches were arranged so that when the lid was pulled the fire would strike the heads. The dynamite caps would fire the dynamite. All of the mail machine was saved, and the secret service department has been notified, and the cap may be run down. There is no doubt that it was mailed by some enemy of Hall with the intention of killing him before he had an opportunity to disclose the members in the raid.

After the package had been discovered R. L. Hourland, night clerk at the office, recalls that a package similar in form was mailed early one evening. Mr. Hourland was collecting the mail from the basket when some one reached his hand down nearly to the basket and dropped the package easily. He thought nothing of it, as frequently packages are dropped gently in when the wrapping is weak.

Hall was boarding in Paducah after the trial, but the carriers never found him to deliver the package. Sanford Hall was the star witness in the Hollowell night rider trial. Since then Hall has been in charge of the state officials. At Clarksville, Tenn., he was an important witness. Several attempts have been made to get rid of Hall, and frequently in Paducah men have been seen whose purpose it was learned was to kill Sanford Hall.

Brother of Hall Murdered.
Louisville, Sept. 28. (Special.)—Minnie Deas, witness in night rider cases of western Kentucky, said in an interview here that Herbert Hall, a missing Caldwell county man and brother of Sanford Hall, was murdered and his body thrown in a well. She claims night riders told her. The Deas woman says she was forced to give an affidavit against state witnesses and officials on penalty of death.

W. H. TAFT WILL COME TO PADUCAH
WHEN HE STARTS ON SOUTHERN TOUR

Director of Speakers Says He Will Ask That He Stop Here

Enroute From Memphis to Louisville.

The following letter was received from the National Republican committee:

"Hon. Frank M. Fisher: I am very glad to hear from you under date of the 26th, and I get a chance with Mr. Hitchcock I will suggest that Secretary Taft stop off at Paducah in going from Louisville to Memphis. Personally you know I should like very much to have Mr. Taft stop in Paducah, and sincerely hope that Kentucky will be Republican. Yours very truly,
"TOLEMAN DU PONT,
"Director Speakers' Bureau."

A letter has been received by Mr. Fisher from Governor Augustus E. Wilson appointing him as one of the Kentucky delegates to the national convention commission, which will meet in Washington December 8. The delegates are not authorized by law, but are appointed as advisers to help the commission. The appointment is quite an honor. Mr. Fisher will accept the honor.

TUBERCULOSIS
CONGRESS BEGINS
SIXTH SESSION

Washington, Sept. 28.—The sixth International Tuberculosis Congress opened with representatives of thirty countries present. The most distinguished gathering of medical scientists ever in America are attending. Secretary Cortelyou, acting for Roosevelt, opened the meeting. He said in the name of the American people the president congratulates the congress upon what it has accomplished and believed the outlook is for greater benefits. He assured the foreign delegates that he appreciated their interest and the good their presence will testify. There were a dozen responses. The convention began in sectional sessions.

Prospects of William H. Taft visiting Paducah while on his southern tour are bright. In answer to his letter inquiring for a date, Postmaster Frank M. Fisher, who returned yesterday from Lexington after attending the state meeting of postmasters, found a letter from Judge Taft. Judge Taft wrote that he had referred the invitation to Frank Hitchcock, who has charge of arranging the date on his trip. Judge Taft expressed hope that he would be able to visit Paducah. A still brighter letter was from Coleman du Pont, director of speakers' bureau, in which he wrote he would suggest to Frank Hitchcock that Judge Taft stop off in Paducah while en route from Louisville to Memphis. Personally Mr. du Pont wrote that he wants Judge Taft to stop in Paducah.

The news will be pleasant in Taft's many admirers, who had little hope of securing him while on his southern

BANK GUARANTY PLAN CONDEMNED BY W. H. TAFT

Foraker's Criticism Considered Ridiculous.

FREE FROM TRUST CONNECTION

In his speech at St. Paul yesterday Mr. Taft gave this pledge: "If I am elected, as I expect to be, I have the greatest pleasure in pledging, in the presence of this grand audience, all the energies and all the abilities of which I am capable to continue the Roosevelt policies, to make business honest and to keep every man within the law, be he humble or rich."

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 28.—Judge W. H. Taft answered the criticism of himself in the statement Senator Foraker made public Friday. Concerning the Ohio federal judgeship appointment he said, that he recommended Judge Doyle, a private individual, for appointment because of Doyle's great professional attainments and high character. In doing so, he explained to the president that Doyle had acted as attorney for the Standard Oil company and other corporations. The president chose to appoint Judge Taylor instead.

As to Mr. Foraker, Mr. Taft commented that he "argues that this is a justification for him, while a senator of the United States, in accepting professional employment from the Standard Oil company and making what was in effect a newspaper partnership with the Standard Oil company to control an organ of public opinion."

The Middle Bass Charge Overruled.
As to the charge of Mr. Foraker, that Judge Taft rode to Middle Bass in the private car of Mr. Lewis, and on the yacht of Commodore Richardson of the alleged glass trust, Mr. Taft declared that he used a private car which he paid for, and that the boat he rode on was that provided for by the Middle Bass club, whose guest he was at the time.

Mr. Taft's answer in full as follows: "I. Senator Foraker says in his statement that I recommended Judge Doyle for a United States judgeship in northern Ohio, and the president acquiesced in the recommendation, when we knew that he was attorney for the Standard Oil company, and argues that this is a justification for him while a senator of the United States in accepting personal employment from the Standard Oil company and in making what was in effect a newspaper partnership with the Standard Oil company to control an organ of public opinion. Judge Doyle held no public office and numbered the Standard Oil company as one among a number of clients."

"I told the president that Judge Doyle was a man of high character and a lawyer of great ability and experience and would make a good judge, but he explained what his corporate personal connection had been and the president as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, pre-

Hears Has More Ammunition.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Hearst, while here en route to Denver to join Illigell, announced he has further ammunition against both parties. He has more letters, which he says contain new charges and corroborate the old. The letters reveal the alleged treachery of leaders of both parties and show further corruption.

Postmaster Fisher Sees Taft Victory

Postmaster Frank M. Fisher has returned from Louisville, where he attended a meeting of the state central Republican committee last Saturday. From every part of the state flattering reports were received, and it looks like from present indications that Kentucky will be for Taft. Mr. Fisher attended the state postmasters' convention at Lexington, Mrs. Fisher accompanied Mr. Fisher on the trip.

JUDGE TAFT AND RAILROAD MEN

Pamphlet Shows His Admirable Attitude Toward Labor.

Effort to Confound His Action in the Ann Arbor Case With That of Judge Hicks.

STRENGTHENED THE UNIONS.

An interesting pamphlet has been issued for circulation among railroad men during the present canvass and is a powerful argument in favor of Judge Taft for president.

The heading on the pamphlet is, "In Case of Doubt Take the Safe Man," and the arguments advanced largely relate to Mr. Taft's public and judicial career in so far as they relate to railroad men.

In the little pamphlet a brief digest is given of all Judge Taft's decisions relating to labor troubles, and it shows that the whole trend of his decisions was distinctly to strengthen labor unions.

Particular emphasis is put upon the decision of Judge Taft in the so-called Ann Arbor case, and it is shown that the injunction granted there was mandatory under the statute and that Judge Taft had no other recourse except to do what he did. It is also shown that an attempt has been made to confound Judge Taft's action in this case with that of Judge Hicks, of Cleveland, who issued a much more sweeping injunction and subsequently imprisoned a locomotive engineer by the name of Lemmer for contempt.

The following quotation from Judge Taft's speech at Louisville is used in the pamphlet:

"The laborer is bound to have work, and, therefore, if he is not getting it, the capitalist has him at his mercy with reference to the amount of wages that he shall pay. The laborers have seen this. They have organized into unions. They have organized a contribution from each out to constitute a fund which shall enable some of their number in controversies with capitalists to strike when it shall be most convenient to those capitalists to have them strike, in order to compel more favorable terms of employment, and in doing so they are exercising their full legal right. They have the right to do everything within the law which shall strengthen them to meet the controversies, and put them on an equal advantage in dealing with capital, as to what their wages shall be."

Said delegates to the delegate convention, shall choose the respective nominees for the various offices to be filled at the November (1908) election.

Each precinct shall send one delegate for each 100 votes, or fractional part over 50, cast for Hon. A. E. Willson at the November election, 1907.

The various precincts are entitled to the following representation: Chalkin, 1; South Side Court House (1) 1; South Side Court House (2) 2; Schmidt's, 1; Henschberger's, 2; Plow Factory, 1; Warehouse, 1; Gallman's, 3; Berry's, 1; South Side Fire Station, 1; Yancy's, 1; Butler's, 1; Delgel's, 2; Savage's, 2; Kirkpatrick's, 2; Glauber's, 1. ### AFTER FIERCE BATTLE

With Government Officials Green Goods Man Is Arrested.
Baltimore, Md., Sept. 25.—After a fierce hand-to-hand encounter this afternoon with two alleged green goods men in a room on the ground floor at 332 West Mulberry street, Postoffice Inspector Hal B. Mosby, of Virginia, succeeded in arresting one man, who is believed to be the ring leader, and shot at the other, who made good his escape through a window.

The prisoner was taken to the northwestern police station and locked up pending the action of the United States authorities. He had in his possession a grip that contained several thousand dollars of good United States money.

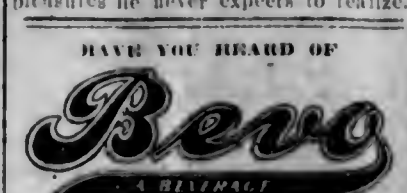

Mosby, who is a nephew of the famous Colonel Mosby, of Mosby's rangers, is a Virginian, and lives at Bedford Springs. He had been working on the case for some time, and declared that he had reason to believe that the men had been trying to operate in this city for two weeks.

SORROWS OF A LONG MAN.

Long Leaves Show Life Only to Find There's No Other Place for Him.
A Missouri giant, 7 feet 2 inches tall, complains because life offers nothing to him but a side show, and side show existence is monotonous. He has been looking for a "job" and finds that he is too tall to enter the army, too tall to work in the average shop, to tall to be employed in an office, too tall for a traction car conductor or motorman—"too tall for anything." Since he left the circus, he says, he has been unable to get sufficient to eat in hotels and has had to pay for two beds which broke when his legs straightened out after he had gone to sleep. Worst grievance of all, he declares he cannot go anywhere "without being gawked at by a lot of rubbernecks." These things being so, he will go back to the side show, but he hates to do it. The incident shows that there are some sorrows the commonplace, every-day man, who thinks he knows all about trouble, has no experience with.—Indianapolis Star.

The New Wood Yard is Ready For Business.

We have our portable wood sawing machine in operation and are now prepared to furnish any amount of oak stove and heating wood (good country wood). We are cutting it 12 to 16 inches long, but will cut special lengths to suit customers.

We opened a wood yard in connection with our coal business in order to furnish our men steady employment, as every man given employment at this time helps improve business conditions and hastens the return of prosperity.

Then Paducah needs a first-class wood yard, and if the people will patronize us we will guarantee them an up-to-date yard, where they can get oak stove and heating wood any time during the year. We will also have loose and bundled kindling and will be in position to furnish mixed loads—part wood and part kindling. It is just our desire or intention to run or take away from any person running a wood wagon their business, but will endeavor to make their business more secure by selling their wood at our yard to fill their orders.

We have the wood to sell and will deliver it to you or you can send a wagon to our yard for it.

It is not necessary now for you to purchase a large quantity at a time, as you can buy one load at a time from us and depend on getting it when you want it.

One-horse load Oak Stove or Heating Wood ..... $1.00
Two-horse load Oak Stove wood.....$1.50
Two-horse load Heating Wood.....$1.25
Oak Stove Wood, per cord, delivered ..... 1.50

Lawyer Eloquence in India.

A babu lawyer in India who recently defended a woman accused of assault and battery delivered himself as follows: "My learned friend with more wind from a teapot thinks to browbeat me from my legs. I only seek to place my bone of contention clearly in your honor's eye. My learned friend vainly runs amuck upon the sheet anchors of my case. My poor client has been deprived of some of her valuable skin, the leather of her nose, I'll tell the witness explains what became of my client's nose. I'm sure he cannot be allowed to raise a cauld in the air by beating upon a bush."—New York Tribune.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Settle-Cornland Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Anne Stafford Settle and Mr. Louis M. Cornland took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride on North Fifth street. The house was decorated in potted plants and golden rods, making a color of green and gold.

The mantle in the drawing room was banked with potted palms and ferns, intermingled with goldenrod, forming a beautiful background for the bride party.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Gray sang very impressively "Melody of Love" and "Hallelujah."

The bride party entered from the hall to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Constance Puryear. During the ceremony "Venetian Love Song" was played softly. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Cave.

The bride was gowned in a dark blue traveling suit, with hat and gloves to match. There were no attendants except Miss Lucy Hill Settle, sister of the bride, who held the nosegay during the ceremony.

After the wedding an informal reception was held. Ice and cake were served, carrying out the color scheme of green and gold.

The couple left on the 6:15 train for their home in Dyersburg, Tenn.

German Club Officers.

At a business meeting of the German club yesterday the annual election of officers was held, and plans for next year were discussed. ## FAREWELL SERVICE IN OLD CHURCH

By Trimble Street Congregation Last Night.

Splendid Program Rendered by Ministers and Laymen of Church—Large Crowd Attended.

SUNDAY SERVICES INTERESTING

The farewell services at the Trimble Street Methodist church last night were attended by a large audience in spite of the stormy weather. The services were the last to be held by the congregation, which will take charge of their new church on Fountain avenue November 8.

Many tributes to the church were made in the addresses. Mr. C. W. Morrison, an elder of the church, spoke on "Our Struggles," telling how the church had begun fourteen years ago and advanced to the front, being rewarded by the erection of a new building at Fountain avenue and Monroe street, Mr. J. D. Smith spoke on "A Small Beginning," and was followed by the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church. Rev. Sullivan's theme was "Methodism as an Aggressive Force."

The pastor, Rev. George W. Banks, spoke next on "Our Future," showing what was in store for the congregation that had been so earnest and attentive in their church life. No services were held at the Broadway Methodist church last night in order that the congregation could join in with the Trimble street congregation. The Rev. H. B. Terry conducted no services at the Third Street Methodist church and many of that congregation were present at the farewell service.

The church will be occupied next Sunday by the congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which has purchased the building. The Rev. D. W. Fooks will be the pastor.

No church services will be held by the Trimble street congregation until November 8, when it will open the new church on Fountain avenue. Sunday, October 11, the Sunday school department will hold its first service in the new church, which will be completed sufficiently for this purpose. The finishing touches are being put on the new structure and the roof has about been completed. The interior will be finished by November 8. The Trimble street congregation has occupied the old building for fourteen years and their reward will be the handsome new building.

Broadway Methodist.

Large crowds attended the Broadway Methodist church Sunday morning. The Rev. Sullivan spoke on "God's Jewels and How He Loves Them," and was followed by Mrs. Margaret Bilz, of Michigan, who spoke on "The Reward of Those Who Are Faithful." Mrs. Bilz is attending the state meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church.

Italy day was held in the Sunday school in the morning with a large attendance. An attractive program was carried out and a good collection taken. No services were held in the evening.

Dr. Llewellyn's Sermon.

"Glorious in the Cross of Christ" was the subject of the Rev. G. A. Llewellyn's sermon yesterday morning at the Tenth Street Christian church. No evening service was held. Next Sunday will be rally day in the Sunday school and a program is being arranged. The Rev. Charles E. Jackson, of Sandersville, Ga., who has been called as pastor of the church, will be here next Sunday and preach his opening sermon.

The services at the First Baptist church were well attended Sunday in the morning. The Rev. M. E. Dodd preached on "Heavenly Rewards." His topic for the evening sermon was "The Poured Out Soul Unto Death."

The rally day service in the Sunday school was well attended.

A good attendance was present at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday morning when the Rev. J. R. Henry spoke on "The Church Versus the Saloon." No services were held at night, the church being turned over to the W. C. T. U. women.

Episcopal.

During October the Rev. David Cady Wright, rector of Grace Episcopal church, will preach a series of sermons at the Sunday night services on "Social Questions." Rev. Wright is prepared for some interesting sermons, which will be of great benefit to the men of the church. Rev. Wright's subject yesterday morning was "Do Angels Really Exist." His evening theme was "The Ministry of Angels." Both services were well attended. Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock communion services will be held at the Grace church.

German services were conducted at the German Evangelical church, on South Fifth street, yesterday morning and English services at night by the Rev. William Bourquin. Tuesday Rev. Bourquin will attend the district Sunday school convention at Bellevue, near Lone Oak. The Rev. Gebauer, of Henderson, will be here to assist.

Church Notes.

The official board of the Broadway Methodist church will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Amelia Hutchison

Mrs. Amelia Hutchison, 58 years old, died yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Cole, 1217 Tennessee street, after a six weeks' illness of cancer of the lungs. Mrs. Hutchison was a native of Arkansas, and had been a resident of Paducah for 18 months. She had a wide circle of friends in this city and was highly respected by all who knew her. She is survived by five children, Mrs. Jack Cole, Mrs. J. C. Calender, and Forrest Hutchison, all of Paducah; Mrs. L. O. Hawkins, Lima, O., and Mr. Roland Hutchison, of St. Louis. The funeral took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Cole, 1217 Tennessee street, the Rev. Bruner officiating. The burial was in Oak Grove cemetery.

T. J. Young Dies

T. J. Young, a well known truck gardener of Lone Oak, died this morning at 5 o'clock at his home after a long illness of slow fever brought on by catarrh of the stomach. He was born near Lovelockville and was 50 years old. Eleven years ago he moved with his family to Lone Oak, Mo. Young was a member of the Methodist church.

He is survived by a wife and four children. The children are Miss May Young, a school teacher, and Earl, Carl and Mildred. He also leaves a brother, William Young, of Graves county, and two sisters, Mrs. Bert Shepherd and Mrs. James Stoner, both of Graves county.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the Baptist church at Lone Oak, the Rev. W. J. Naylor, assisted by the Rev. William Golden, officiating. Burial will be at Owen's chapel, in Graves county.

Horse Stolen.

Some vandal took the horse of Mrs. Julia Miles, 420 South Sixth street, last night and drove it all night. This morning the horse was found near Fifth and Clark streets much worse for the rough treatment. The pony was put in the stable last night and this morning the doors were propped open. After a search the horse was found. Marks of the harness were still on its body, and wounds were on its side. The police were notified but the vandal has not been located.

Deeds Filed.

Maggie Steed to Langstaff-Orm Manufacturing company, property at Eighth and Jackson streets, $1 and other considerations.

Cecil Reed to F. E. and A. Langstaff, property at Fifth street and Broad alley, $175.

Robert Newton, et al., to W. B. Jones, two acres of land in the county, $450.

At Metropolis.

Judge Liggitt, of Metropolis, married the following: J. L. Gore to Susan L. McNeil, Edward A. Heard to Mary F. Copeland, William H. Collier to Amanda Miller. These three were married Saturday and all of Boaz Station, Ky. Sunday Judge Liggitt married Andrew E. Owen to Mattie E. Magruder, of Keokuk. Judge Liggitt reports a good rain at Metropolis.

The meeting of the Brotherhood, called for Monday night, has been postponed until Tuesday night on account of the mass meeting of citizens at the city hall.

WILL CUT INTO DEMOCRATS.

Prohibitionists Likely to Get on the Ticket in the Ninth.

Carlisle, Ky., Sept. 28.—Petitions are being circulated throughout Nicholas county, and all the counties of the Ninth congressional district for the purpose of getting the name of the Hon. A. W. Morris, of Russell, dropped out of the list as the Prohibition candidate for congress.

In case a sufficient number of petitioners are secured in each county to place the name of Mr. Morris on the ballot, which will certainly be done, the Prohibition congressional and national ticket will draw heavily from the Democratic ticket in many parts of the district, inasmuch as there are many prohibitionists who have in the last few campaigns been voting the Democratic ticket and will not support Mr. Bryan and the Democratic ticket this fall. The prohibitionists and many temperance Democrats are greatly dissatisfied with the position the Democratic party has taken, and many who have heretofore supported Mr. Bryan will not do so this year.

A Democrat, who has studied the situation in the Ninth district recently, made the remark in Carlisle that Mr. Kehoe, the Democratic nominee for congress, would lose the Ninth this fall by 2,500.

"It 'pears few me," remarked the rural philosopher, "that law air a snap sight like a colt." "How's that?" queried the hired man. "Sardony has new break it afore yew kin tell whether it's enay good or not," explained the old granger.—Chicago Daily.

BRYAN OPPONENT SUCCEEDS HASKELL

Editor Who Demanded Nebraskan Withdraw as Treasurer.

Democratic Nominee is Reported to Have Said That He "Didn't Care."

THE SELECTION A SURPRISE

New York, Sept. 28.—Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats-Zeitung, was appointed Saturday night treasurer of the Democratic national committee to succeed Gov. Charles N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, whose resignation was demanded by Bryan. Chairman Norman E. Mack, of the national committee, had announced earlier in the day that he would not fill the vacancy until Monday, when he would give out the name of the future treasurer on his arrival at the western headquarters in Chicago.

Mr. Mack was in communication, however, several times with Bryan and it is understood that Bryan informed the national chairman that he did not care who was named as treasurer so long as he was a man of good repute and of influence.

Suitable to Bryan.
 From what could be learned at headquarters, it was Mr. Mack who suggested the name of Mr. Ridder and that Mr. Bryan at once replied that the selection of Mr. Ridder would be an acceptable one so far as he was concerned. Upon receipt of this message Mr. Mack gave out the announcement of Mr. Ridder's appointment.

Since the opening of the Democratic national campaign Mr. Ridder has been in charge of the literary bureau of the eastern headquarters. Before the Denver convention he was opposed to the nomination of Mr. Bryan, but afterward he fell in line.

Once Asked Bryan to Withdraw.
 At the Grand Central station, when he was leaving for the convention, Mr. Ridder said: "I am going to stop off at Lincoln and tell Mr. Bryan that if he has any regard for the welfare of the Democratic party he ought to withdraw his name as a candidate for the presidency, nomination. If the Democratic party is to have a chance of success this year the Denver convention must nominate a conservative candidate on a conservative platform. I intend to tell Mr. Bryan to get out of the race, even if I am thrown out of his house for my energy."

Mr. Ridder did stop off at Lincoln but after his interview with Mr. Bryan he went on to Denver and voted for the nomination of the Nebraskan.

When Mr. Ridder was reminded of this incident, he said: "It is true that I was at first opposed to Mr. Bryan, but I have accepted the leadership of the national committee for the reason that I favor tariff reform and in my opinion as the only hope of such reform is the election of Bryan. I considered it my duty to support Bryan and as a part of that duty I accepted the office which was tendered by Mr. Mack. I am going to do everything in my power to help the Democratic party win, because I think that it will be only by the election of the Democratic ticket that the people of the country will have a chance of relief from the exactions of the trusts which are being protected by the high tariff."

Best the World Affords.
 "It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 25c. at all druggists."

BRANK FATHER'S WHISKY.

Son of Laurel County Merchant Near Death's Door.

London, Ky., Sept. 28.—Thursday shortly after noon, Walter, the six-year-old son of M. F. Garrison, a merchant of Lake, this county, drank four ounces of his father's whisky, and has been just barely alive ever since. The boy had come to town with his father after a load of goods, and while the father was at the depot, the son found the whisky in the wagon and drank until the deadly poison ran him wild.

He was taken to the Eversole company's store, where he suffered convulsions until late last night at intervals of from ten to twenty minutes. The lad is resting easier now and may recover, though the chances are against him.

What to Say.
 The Sunday school was about to be dismissed when the superintendent arose, to the disgust of nearly all the children, who thought the session had been long enough, and announced: "And now, children, let me introduce Mr. Smith, who will give us a short talk."

Mr. Smith smilingly arose and after gazing intently around the class room, began with "I hardly know what to say," when the whole school was convulsed to hear a small, thin voice back in the rear, hiss: "They amen and thit down!"—Illustrated Bits.

Need Medicine?

For Women's Ills

When you need a medicine for women's ills, we urge you earnestly to take Cardui.

Cardui is a woman's medicine. It is not for men, nor even for such women as do not suffer from any of the ills peculiar to women.

It is not a cure-all, but a genuine medicine, of real scientific value in certain forms of disease—the diseases to which only women are liable.

Hence, you should take Cardui, if sick, when you feel that you are suffering in this way, and you may take it in perfect safety and in confidence.

Mrs. Bettie Arp, of Menlo, Ga., writes: "I have been using Cardui with the greatest benefit. I was troubled with female complaint for twelve (12) months. The doctors treated me for four months. They did me but little good, so I took Cardui and I believe it saved my life."

DR. M'CORMACK

MAY BE APPOINTED MEMBER OF STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.

Of Charitable Institutions—President in State Medical Society Work.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 28.—Although the term of the Milton Board as a member of the board of control of charitable institutions does not expire until January 1, Gov. Wilson has received numerous applications for the place and the friends of the various candidates are lobbying every influence to bear to have the appointment go their way. The man who is said to have the best chance of appointment is Dr. A. T. McCormack, of Bowling Green, who once declined to accept a place on this same board.

Some dozens of others are mentioned, but it is said that the governor is most favorably inclined toward Dr. McCormack and if Dr. McCormack wants the place he can get it. Gov. Wilson does not like the way men have piled over themselves in their applications, and says the rush has been unbecomingly in view of the fact that the appointment will not be made for some time. Dr. McCormack is not an applicant for the place, and his name has been mentioned by his friends, who believe that a western Kentucky Democrat should have the place, and think Dr. McCormack the ideal man for it.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Paducah women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, disturbing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Paducah woman's words:

Mr. Walter Mathews, 1250 North Thirtieth street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I used the contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they did more to relieve me of a lame back and pain in my left side than all else I ever used. Before taking them I suffered intensely from pains in my back and sides, at times was hardly able to do my housework. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended and procured a box at H. Bole, Son, & Co.'s drug store. I took them as directed and was more than pleased with the results."

HARVEST RICH TO STOCKHOLDERS

Of Dark Tobacco Growers Protective Association.

Annual Earnings Are Over $100,000, With $200 Capital and Forty-two Shareholders.

EVIDENCE CAUSES A SENSATION.

Clarksville, Tenn., Sept. 28.—Evidence was introduced in the Gardner-Hunt trial to show that the Planters'
Protective association is a $200 corporation with an annual income to the stockholders of between $100,000 and $200,000. This was the substance of the testimony of C. P. Warfield, of this city, who has been in the tobacco
business for a long number of years and is thoroughly familiar with the situation.

Mr. Warfield stated that there were forty-two stockholders who possessed the $200 capital, and that the income went to them. Under the charter the corporation receives 1 per cent from the gross receipts of sales of tobacco and also gets the types and the trash.

The association claims to have handled 34,000 hogheads of the 1905
crop, 39,000 hogheads of the 1906 crop and 60,000 hogheads of the 1907 crop. Mr. Warfield made his estimates on the 1906 crop, estimating that the 1 per cent would amount to about $50,000, or more, the receipts from the "types" to about $25,000,
and from the trash about $10,000,
making a grand total of about $115,000 income from the 1906 crop and something over 50 per cent more than this for the 1907 crop when it is thoroughly disposed of. All of this evidence, including the charter of the association and other matters per-kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from ill-health, rapid liver with indigestion, or, perhaps, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic,
bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.
The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants,
viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and taining to its organization, etc., was introduced in the absence of the jury

the court holding that it was irrelevant and incompetent and the defense introducing it only in order to complete the record.

This was easily the most sensational feature of the day, though the defense succeeded in bringing in a good deal of important testimony.
Two men were introduced to prove that small groups of men had been seen early on the night of the killing riding toward Bennett's factory, the impression being left that they were going toward a point of mobilization of night riders. A great deal of testimony was heard on the point of just how much undergrowth there was in the field where Gardner and Hunt were stationed the night of the killing, the state endeavoring to show that the weeds and so forth were so thick that the defendants were hidden and that they fired from ambush and the defense endeavoring to prove that there was not undergrowth enough there at the time to hide a man even at night.

Jonas Stacey, who lived in the immediate vicinity of the killing but has since moved to Nashville, described his shipping at the hands of the night riders. Four nights before the killing of Vannoy Bennett he was called from the house,
stripped to the skin and whipped with a buggy whip and an oak grab until he bled. He was told as to a farewell message that if he did not join the association when the books were open again they would come back and kill him. Mr. Stacey moved from the county the next day. The band were all masked,
and some of them had white cloths
on their right shoulder.

English failed her and she said:

AFRAID TO EAT.

Girl Starving on Ill-Selected Food.

"Several years ago I was actually starving," writes a Maine girl, "yet dared not eat for fear of the consequences."

"I had suffered from indigestion from overwork, irregular meals and improper food, until at last my stomach became so weak I could eat scarcely any food without great distress."

"Many kinds of food were tried, all with the same discouraging effects. I steadily lost health and strength until I was but a wreck of my former self.
"Having heard of Grape-Nuts and its good merits, I purchased a package, but with little hope that it would help me—I was so discouraged."

"I found it not only appetizing but that I could eat it as I liked and that it satisfied the craving for food without causing distress, and if I may use the expression, 'it filled the bill.'"
"For months Grape-Nuts was my principal article of diet. I felt from the very first that I had found the right way to health and happiness, and my anticipations were fully realized."

"With its continued use I regained my usual health and strength. Today
I am well and can eat anything I like, yet Grape-Nuts food forms a part of my bill of fare." "There's a Reason."

TO SAVE FORESTS FOR RIVERS SAKE

Railroads Asked to Co-operate With Government.

To Prevent Floods and Preserve Forests—Systematic Record to Be Kept.

WILL KEEP DAILY READINGS

Washington, Sept. 28.—Director George Otis Smith, of the United States geological survey, has invited officers of the leading railroads of the country to a conference on a co-operative plan by which it is expected the railroads will be able to save thousands of dollars a year. The plan also contemplates most effective assistance to the government on the part of railroads. The time and place of the proposed conference is to be agreed on later.

The scheme, which has already been approved by a number of the engineers of the big lines, is one for the gathering of facts as to the amount of water flowing in the rivers of the country under certain conditions and in different periods of the year. Naturally, the railroads have been chief sufferers from floods in the basins where their tracks lie. They have suffered not only from damages to their own property, but they have been sued by other corporations and private citizens on the ground that their bridges and culverts were the causes of flood damage. The railroad authorities have left that many judgments against the roads might not have been rendered if they had been able to produce authentic figures on floods. But they have not been able to do this. The national conservation commission has been advised of the proposed plan and whatever results come from it will undoubtedly be considered by the commission at its joint meeting with the governors of the states or their representatives, here next December.

The survey suggests that the railroad companies establish gauges on their bridges and culverts and appoint some of their employees to take daily readings. The survey agrees to have its experts make frequent visits to these stations and take actual current meter measurements so that a rating table of each channel will be available.

For many years the survey has been studying the difference in the flow of rivers in various basins in the country. At present it is engaged in putting the information gained by its study into shape for the use of the national conservation commission, together with other information which it is gathering especially for the inventory of the country's natural resources that the commission is preparing.

The survey has been unable to extend its observations to many regions where the information would be of vital importance because it lacks funds. The co-operation of the railroads would permit the survey to cover many regions.

The expense to the railroads under this arrangement would be trifling.
The survey authorities say, because the roads could designate men already on their pay-rolls, such as draw-tenders, tank men, or water station
engineers to take the daily readings.
On the other hand, if the survey could be relieved of the cost of daily supervision of the gauges, it would be able to carry on the more technical parts of the undertaking.

PADUCAH BANKERS

ELECTED TO IMPORTANT OFFI-CES BY STATE ASSOCIATION.

L. M. Riecke, Sr., Elected Vice President and J. C. Utterback Executive Committeeman.

Paducah bankers were not omitted in representation by the election of officers of the Kentucky State Bankers' association, which met at Lexington, Mr. L. M. Riecke, Sr., was elected vice president of the association
from the first congressional district.
J. C. Utterback was elected a new executive committeeman. Paducah was the only city in the Purchase that had an officer elected.

Everybody—Nobody.
"You have come to see us at a bad time," said the Best Citizen. "Everybody has gone away for the summer.
I would not be here myself if it were not for some unexpected business matters."

"What do you mean?" queried the Man from Mars. "You say that everybody has gone away and yet the streets seem to be actually crowded with people."

"Of course; how stupid of me! I returned the Best Citizen. "That is one of our idioms, you know. I mean everybody who is anybody has gone away. The workers are left here to be sure."

"Who is anybody?" persisted the Man from Mars.

"Well, you see that is another of our idioms," responded the Best Citizen. "I hardly know how to explain
it. It means anybody who amounts to anything."

"Don't the workers amount to anything?"

"Well, not in that sense. Of course they amount to a good deal in their way." The Best Citizen was beginning to feel that he was in deep water.

The Man from Mars reflected a moment. Then he said: "Anybody who has gone away for the summer is somebody, and anybody who is compelled to stay at home is nobody."

"Very clever, very clever," agreed
the Best Citizen.—Success.

punishment—for his neighbor.

Very Sad Drowning

Strange indeed that the city can not have one week without its usual drowning. But this week is like others.
Why? Because the Star theater is the sole cause of it all. It has drowned all who claimed to be a competitor. While the Star never recognized or even considered there was a competitor until hot air called its attention to the fact that some one passed as a competitor. Some one said: "Ain't this going some?"
Well, if that is going some what kind of a pace did the Star go. By putting on every picture except one, the Devil, at least a week ahead of any other house in the city. And the picture called the Devil was run at the Star the same night as elsewhere.
Then it was not repeated under the pretense of special request. If you can't be a bell cow, go away back and sit down. He is crazy. Who? Why, Mr. Louis Farrell. If you don't think it just took what he is giving away for nothing. He is a sack of nuts or he would not do this. Don't sympathize with him at all. But come to the Star and get the benefit of Mr.
Farrell's crazy notions, and carry his money home with you.

That moving picture song, "Dear Old Stars and Stripes God-Bye," that has been run at the Star theater the past few days, has scored such a hit that the crazy man will put it on all this week. Say, this is a stinging picture song, by a real, live, human singer. Not a bogus singing and talking picture with a phonograph to reproduce the voice.

Our phonograph is out in front of the theater and used with the endeavor to make you as buggy as the manager of the Star.

Did you ever hear a picture talk?
Yes, if you have been at Hopkinsville for a while. If not then, come to the Star and hear a singer sing a moving picture song, and one that will make you want to shoulder that old musket and defend dear old Stars and Stripes.

He must be crazy. Who? Guess.

STAR THEATRE

The theatre that is always in the lead. First in everything. First to offer diamond ring and only one to offer gold watch to amateurs. And now the only one to offer the patrons of this popular theatre a line of the handsomest prizes ever placed before the public.

Think of It! A 100-piece Dinner Set of the finest make; Lamps, none more beautiful; Coffee sets of 7 pieces; Berry Sets of 7 pieces; Hand-Painted Pitchers and Vases—

They are all on display in the lobby of the Star Theatre, and every patron of the Star Theatre has the same equal chance to win these handsome articles. As you enter the theater you receive an envelope which contains a number. The following night the prizes are to be awarded by blindfolding a boy and he will draw numbers from a hat, the one holding the corresponding number receives the prize. The drawing will take place immediately after the first performance each night, and the winning numbers posted on the stage and the winning number must be in the theatre during that night and presented to the manager who will then award the prize. Thursday night one of the handsome lamps will be given away. Wednesday night's number wins this beautiful lamp.

LARGE CROWD
HEARS DR. BRUNER

Discuss Campaign Issues Saturday Night.

Declares That If Prosperity Is to Continue William H. Taft Must Be Elected President.

HE ASSAULTS BRYAN'S RECORD

Although the address of Dr. Ben L. Bruner, secretary of state, at the city hall was not advertised well owing to the short announcement, a large crowd filled the police court room Saturday night. Dr. Bruner is one of the best Republican orators, and his dates are arranged by the national Republican committee. He took all issues of the campaign and answered questions of the audience with pleasure. The key note of Dr. Bruner's address was that for prosperity to continue that William H. Taft must be elected, and answering the question for a change in office as good for the nation, he recalled the incidents of Cleveland's administration.

"Twelve years ago we were in the midst of one of the biggest campaigns in the history of the United States," said Dr. Bruner. "But the present campaign is of more interest than since the settlement of that civil strife. Now again we are in the midst of a big campaign, with the same leader in the Democratic forces that we had twelve years ago." In paying respects to Mr. Bryan Dr. Bruner said "Not over a few weeks ago I heard one of the most noted lecturers declare that William Jennings Bryan was without an equal as an orator on the rostrum, and that he could draw the largest crowds at his speakings by his oratory and receive fewer votes than any man on earth."

Launching forth into the real heart of his address, Secretary Bruner said that he wanted to talk business. "The Republican party has been in power for fifty years, and has been successful. Now we ask that you permit us to remain in power. In 1892 they asked you for a change and what were the results? I am a protectionist from the word go. I stand ready to go on the high financial seas with only that plank as my lifeboat. The tariff is nothing more than a mutual protective association whereby it enables the manufacturers to pay high wages. And everybody is benefited by receiving high wages, and the competition for the high grade laboring man with the cheap laborers from foreign countries is shut out."

"Consider the qualifications of the candidates," urged Dr. Bruner. "Bryan has been a failure in his policies since he first sprang up, while Taft has been a success before he was on
